SALT HANDPRINT OR CUT OUT ORNAMENTS

2 cups flour

1/2 cup table salt

3/4 cup water

Mix the ingredients together in a large bowl. When it becomes too stiff to stir, use clean hands to bring the dough together. Knead until the dough is uniform and soft, about 3-5 minutes.

Roll the dough out to about 1/4-1/2 inch thick.

Cut out a circle big enough for child's handprint.

Press handprint into dough. Poke a hole in the top of the ornament for the ribbon. Preheat oven to 250 degrees F.

Bake for 2-3 hours (small ornaments) or until just firm to the touch. (They do not need to be rock hard,).

Handprints make take up to 4 hours.

Remove from oven, let cool, and paint if desired with acrylic or washable tempera paint. Once paint is completely dry, seal with Mod Podge if desired.

You can create salt ornaments using cookie cutters if desired.

Scripture

When they heard the king, they departed; and behold, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came and stood over where the young Child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. And when they had come into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down and worshiped Him. And when they had opened their treasures, they presented gifts to Him: gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Then, being divinely warned in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed for their own country another way.

The Christmas Nail

It's Christmas time at our house and we are putting up the tree.

I wish I could find one simple way to remember Christ's gift to me.

Some little sign or symbol to show friends stopping by.

The little baby was born one day, But He really came to die.

Some symbol of His nail-pierced hands, the blood He shed for you and me...

What if I hung a simple nail upon my Christmas tree?

A crimson bow tied 'round the nail as His blood flowed down so free . To save each person from their sin and redeem us for all eternity.

I know it was His love for us that held Him to that tree, but when I see this simple nail I know He died for me.
